1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Upon reconsideration and in view of applicants' amendment, the Examiner has withdrawn the prior art rejections. The claims are drawn to an oil in water emulsion having a specific water soluble polymer, a specific polyether modified silicone and a hydrophobic particle. While each component is generally known in the art, there simply is not sufficient motivation to select in combination the specific ones required by the claims. For instance, in Brieva et al., one must select from many polyether modified siloxanes one meeting that found in the claims. In addition this reference fails to teach one of the required water soluble polymers as claimed. While analogous art references may teach these polymers useful as an alternative to one of the thickeners found in Brieva et al., there simply is not adequate motivation to select from the breadth of known cosmetically acceptable thickeners one meeting claimed component (c) in combination with the specific polyether modified polysiloxane. One must pick and choose not only from the various polyether modified siloxanes taught, but also from various thickeners not taught. As such there simply is not adequate motivation in the prior art to make the oil in water emulsion as claimed. The Examiner notes that the International Search Report filed 1/12/05 cites only "A" references.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
